HOPE COACH CORNER

VOICES FROM THE FRONT LINES

At TheHopeline, every conversation with a young person is a sacred space — a divine appointment made possible through the heartfelt support of caring friends like YOU.

Empowered by your love, our dedicated Hope Coaches show up every day for hurting young people, meeting them with compassion, truth, and the love of Jesus.

Here are a few glimpses into the heart of one Hope Coach, named “Ames”:

- “To get myself through tough chats even before every shift, I just pray, ‘Lord, let me say what you want me to say. Let me do what you want me to do....’ It’s like in John 5, where Jesus says, ‘I can only do what I see my Father doing.’ I can do nothing on my own. I think that’s the mindset I’ve tried to have in every chat.”
- “So many young people say, ‘I don’t feel like I have anyone to talk to,’ or ‘I don’t feel heard when I have tried to talk to my family or to my school counselor.’ And I think it gives us a unique place. They can come here and they’re going to be heard ... They deserve to be heard. We’re here to listen.”
- “I want the young people to know that, yes, you are going through this and your pain is valid, but He is not going to leave you in it. And He will never let you walk through it alone.”
- “What keeps me passionate is when I get to see those breakthrough chats, when someone comes in hopeless and they are just distraught, nowhere to turn — and then they leave the chat completely different.”

Every time Ames connects with a student or young adult in crisis, you are there in spirit. Thanks to you, combined with the committed service of Hope Coaches like Ames, young people in their darkest moments are finding someone who truly listens, someone who points them to the God who never leaves, and they are finding real hope.

Thank you for being the hands and feet of Jesus through your giving!

In their own words

Charles and Jullianne Ward, of Dothan, Alabama, have supported TheHopeLine for well over 20 years! They also pray specifically each month for three young people who have recently talked with a Hope Coach. Here's a brief word from the Wards:

A personal word

FROM CEO TIM ALTMAN

In this Easter season, I'm truly grateful for you, someone who loves God and loves young people and loves getting the two of them together.

Your faithful support, your heartfelt generosity, sets resurrection miracles in motion through TheHopeLine and all our ministry outreaches.

So ... thank you.

You are a critical part of the "new life" stories we're privileged to tell – and I'm grateful for the powerful ways you help minister to hurting, hopeless young people every single day and introduce them to the blessed hope of Jesus Christ.

Because of Him, young people in crisis can have new life.

Because of you, they hear the Good News that sets them free.

God bless you for being such a friend and partner ... and for introducing so many students and young adults to the Resurrected King! He is risen, indeed.

Your friend,
